The Mysterious Treasure

— PART 1 —

Today it is the BIRTHDAY of Elsa and Anna's father, KING AGNARR. To celebrate, the sisters, and Olaf head into the CASTLE ATTIC to look for OLD MEMORIES. There, in a corner, is a TRUNK they have never seen before. "This chest belonged to FATHER!" Anna exclaims, recognizing Agnarr's royal symbol carved into the wood.

The trunk contains lots of Agnarr's personal items from when he was young: toys, clothes, a portrait, and... a NATURE JOURNAL! "I didn't know Father had a SECRET NOTEBOOK," Elsa says, puzzled. Anna smiles and starts to flip through the book. It is full of Agnarr's notes, drawings, and samples of ARENDELLE'S NATURAL WONDERS.

Suddenly, A MAP draws Olaf's attention. "Oooh! I love maps! I wonder where it leads!" he says. "To a CAVE," answers Anna, carefully looking at the sheet of paper. Then she reads aloud what Agnarr has written in his journal: "A legend says there's a treasure hidden inside..." Olaf smiles. "A TREASURE!" he cries happily.

"Did your father find the treasure? Or the cave?" Olaf asks, now more curious than ever. "Apparently not," Anna says, turning the page and finding the rest of the journal blank. Their father has made no mention of finding THE MYSTERIOUS CAVE in his notes. There is only the map... "That is really strange," says Elsa, thoughtful.

“Let’s look for the cave and maybe we’ll find the treasure, too!” proposes Olaf. Anna and Elsa glance at each other. “Great!” they say in unison, beaming. They both want to FOLLOW THE MAP their father made. “Yay!” shouts Olaf, rushing to the stairs. He can’t wait to start their newest ADVENTURE.

When KRISTOFF and SVEN hear about their friends’ journey, they are eager to join them. According to the map, the cave is located somewhere in the ARENDELLE MOUNTAINS. After gathering the gear they think they might need, they start on their way. Everybody is very excited about the SPECIAL QUEST!

The group HIKES all morning, following the route on Agnarr's map. Anna and Elsa smile at each other, enjoying the journey. It feels almost as if THEIR FATHER IS WALKING ALONGSIDE THEM. It's such a warm feeling! Meanwhile, Sven is daydreaming of the treasure: a chest full of carrots is surely what he would love to find.

There are so many things to admire and LEARN ABOUT during the journey. King Agnarr took note of all the SPECIES OF PLANTS and ANIMALS of the Arendelle forest. "Father was a true EXPLORER!" says Anna, excited. "I can't wait to find the cave," adds Elsa. "It should be that way!" she exclaims, pointing to a nearby clearing.

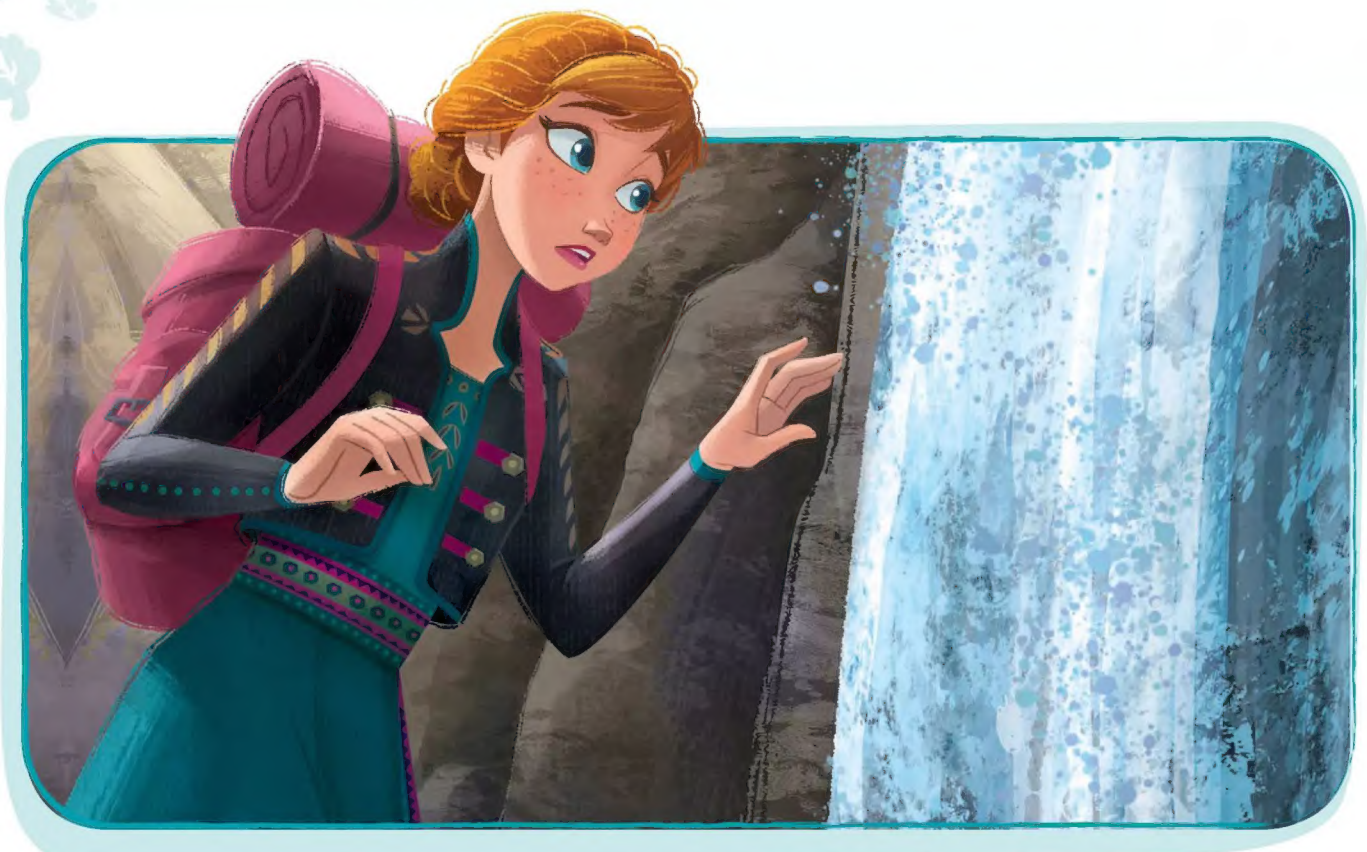

According to the map, Anna, Elsa, and their friends have just arrived at their destination, but all they can see is a beautiful... WATERFALL! “Where’s the cave?” shouts Olaf. Kristoff scratches his chin. “Maybe the POINTS OF REFERENCE for the map HAVE CHANGED. It has been quite some time since it was made.” Anna thinks for a moment. “Hmm... or perhaps it’s HIDDEN somewhere?” “Let’s take a look around!” suggests Elsa.

Olaf looks behind a bush. “Hey! Here it is!” he exclaims excitedly, pointing to a strange hole in the ground. Then A GROUNDHOG peeps out, puzzled.

“Hello!” the snowman warmly GREETES IT. “Can we have a look at the treasure?” he asks. The little animal looks at Olaf and quickly disappears into its den.

“We’re looking for a bigger cave,” chuckles Kristoff. “One maybe we could walk into.” “Oh, I see...” the snowman whispers. “Let’s have a better look at the WATERFALL!” Anna says. As she gets closer, she notices something BEHIND THE WATER. Is that the entrance to the cave?

“We’re going to GET WET if we try to enter a cave through a waterfall. And we didn’t pack any change of clothes,” Kristoff observes. “No problem!” says Elsa, waving her hands. With an ICY BLAST, she FREEZES THE WATERFALL. “A piece of art!” Anna declares. The group passes behind the waterfall and finally enters the mysterious cave.

The Mysterious Treasure

— PART 2 —

The MYSTERIOUS GROTTO is full of STALACTITES and STALAGMITES of different shapes and sizes. “Wow!” Olaf exclaims with his eyes wide open. The snowman has never seen anything like them before. “Are they the treasure?” he asks. “They are beautiful, but those ROCK FORMATIONS are typical of caves,” explains Kristoff.

“I think it’s probably something else, Olaf...” Elsa says. “Let’s keep looking,” she suggests. The group keeps EXPLORING the unusual place until they arrive at a small UNDERGROUND LAKE that reflects the cave’s walls in its clear waters. “How spectacular!” says Anna, amazed. Everybody stops to admire that MIRACLE OF NATURE.

When they reach the shore of the lake, Olaf notices SOMETHING PAINTED ON A BIG ROCK. “Wow!” he calls, hopping with excitement. “I love these DRAWINGS!” he says, recognizing in the painting some humans and a bunch of sheep, and reindeer that HAPPILY LIVE TOGETHER. It’s a scene that is VERY FAMILIAR to the snowman.

Anna, Elsa, Kristoff, and Sven join Olaf. Anna looks carefully at the drawings. “They look ANCIENT,” she says. Kristoff gets close, too. “THEY ARE A FAMILY, JUST LIKE US!” he says to Sven, who is also fascinated by the painting. “And family is the BEST TREASURE ever!” adds Elsa, beaming.

“If family is the treasure... what is THAT?” Olaf asks, noticing A SMALL CHEST next to the rock, where there are also the remains of a CAMPFIRE. Anna opens the chest. It contains a wooden SLINGSHOT, two small TOY BOATS, a colorful MARBLE COLLECTION, and a few TIN SOLDIERS with... the uniform of Arendelle!

“Those are Father's toys! He did visit the cave!” Anna exclaims. “And he left his BOYHOOD TREASURES for the kids who would take shelter here in the future,” Olaf adds, smiling. “This cave really is full of treasures! Everybody who stayed here made it special,” says Elsa, thrilled.

Suddenly, Anna takes out AGNARR'S JOURNAL from her backpack and sits down near the rock, looking around to get inspiration. "Something is still missing!" she says, then starts DRAWING on the last BLANK page. Elsa happily looks at Anna's sketch.

"Father would have LOVED IT!" exclaims Elsa, proud of her sister. Kristoff, Olaf, and Sven agree and rejoice with their friends. They all know that there is only one thing even more SPECIAL than family: a FAMILY MEMORY!
